PELICAN POINT

This beachfront beauty was refurbished in late 2007 and is now more stunning than ever. The plantation-style design and open, cheerful interior, make it the perfect holiday home. One of the few home tucked along Jones Bay, Pelican Point enjoys a nearly private beach with quiet waves lapping along the coast. Great snorkeling in the area and unobstructed views of St. Kitts and the sunsets are the finishing touches. With four ensuite bedrooms, the house can accommodate four couples, two families, or one large extended group.
